

Acquisition Opportunity – ALFAPUMP® and DSR® Assets

The Enterprise Court of Ghent (Belgium) declared Sequana Medical NV and its subsidiary DSRCO BV bankrupt on 30 June 2026.

The court-appointed bankruptcy trustees are currently exploring opportunities for the sale of the companies' assets and are inviting expressions of interest from industry participants, strategic investors, financial investors, and other interested parties.

Parties interested in receiving further information regarding the sale process are invited to contact ASAP the bankruptcy trustees and indicate whether their interest relates to:

- The ALFAPUMP® business, including intellectual property, know-how, regulatory documentation, contracts, inventory, and related assets;
- The ALFAPUMP® intellectual property portfolio as a standalone transaction;
- The DSR® intellectual property portfolio; or
- A combined acquisition of both the ALFAPUMP® and DSR® assets.

Upon registration of interest, eligible parties may receive additional information regarding the transaction process, indicative timeline, confidentiality arrangements, and access to relevant documentation.
